DON'T GET SCOOPED

Because news never stops, an efficient newsroom is vital. Ross delivers news production solutions for the 24/7 digital era.

Never miss a story

To reduce the time it takes to get a story on air, an integrated workflow paired with the most cutting-edge production technology will ensure your newsroom is running at top speed.
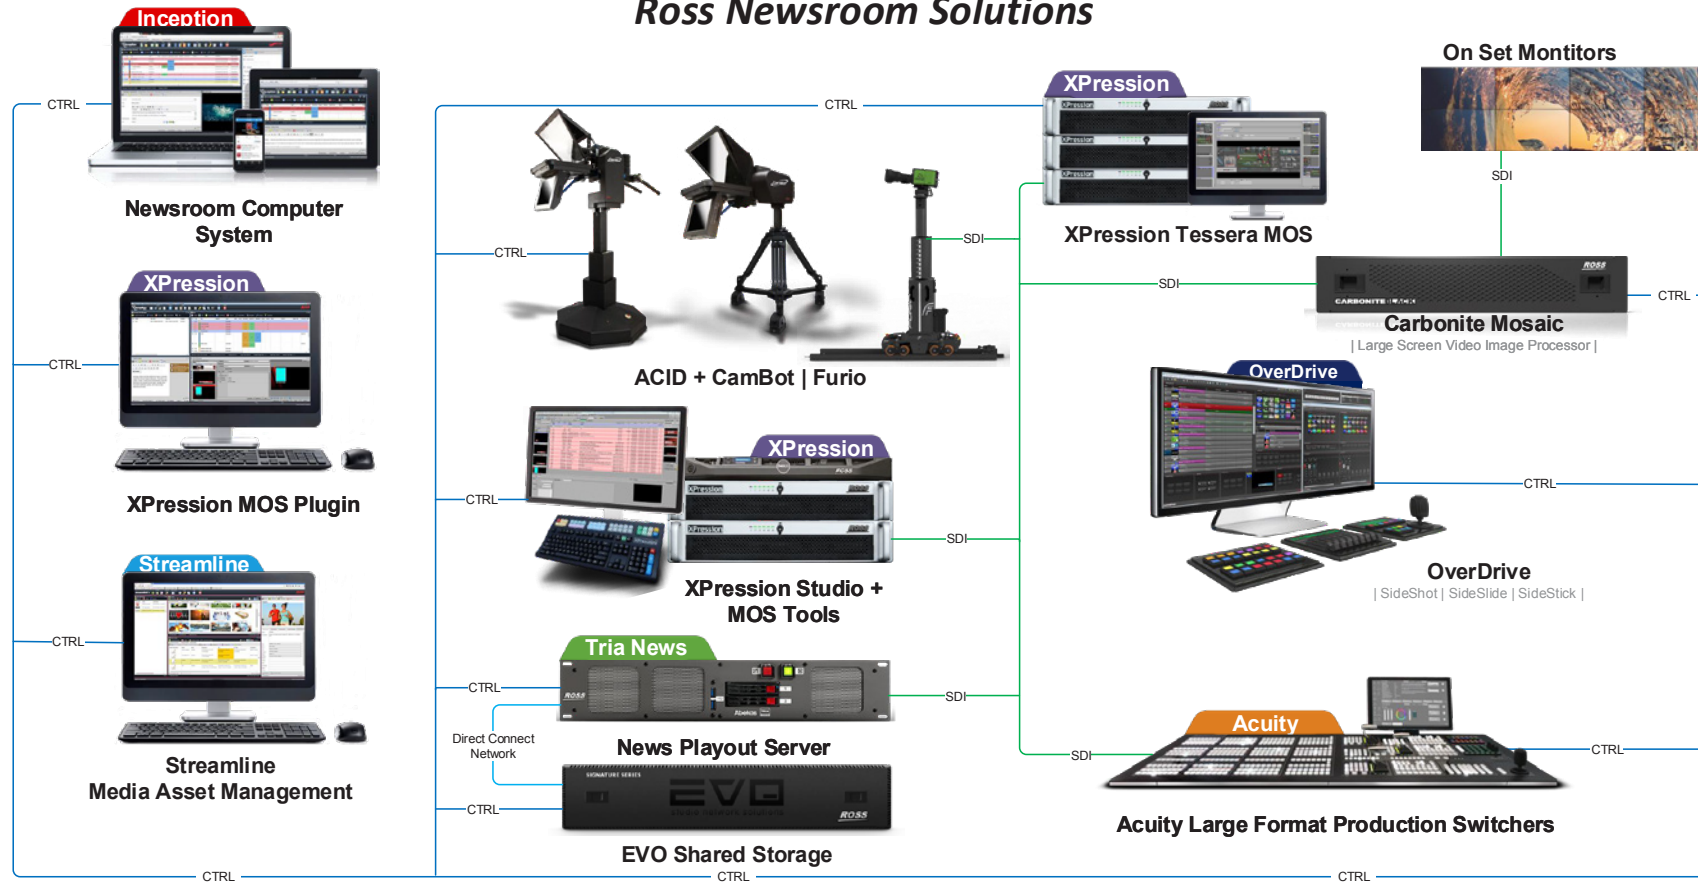

Engage more viewers

Ross applies a unique story-based approach to easily create and package content for cross-platform distribution. Create and monetize more news content streams and produce new types of unique programming.

Built for breaking news

Newscasts are typically scripted workflows, but, when breaking news happens it is important to have a system flexible enough to jump in and out of breaking stories.
