WHAT'S NEW

  Video editors can now register a file to a placeholder using a watch folder. (PRM-1737)

- OPTION TO TURN OFF TARGET INFORMATION IN MOS OBJECT

  Comissioners can use a new VM argument that, when set to `true`, allows you to disable the target information to support third party integrations that require the objID field. (PRM-1852)

  ```
  #To set the Asset ID
  -Dstreamline.mosobj.remove_target_info=true
  ```

- ENFORCE DEFAULT TARGET AS PLAYOUT LOCATION

  Producers can transfer files to a playout device automatically once a rundown is monitored. Includes support for the new option to turn off target information. (PRM-1688)

- NEW 'AssetID' OPTION IN FILE STORAGE NAMING RULES

  There is a new file storage naming rule that renames the file using the asset ID instead of the name. For example, a parachuting.mxf file with the asset ID of 4351, would be renamed 4351.mxf when it's sent to storage. (PRM-1837)
